Article 1 Intent

- 1.1 It is the purpose of this Agreement, in recognizing a common interest between the Company and the Union in promoting the fundamental principles of creativity and innovation in broadcasting and the utmost cooperation and friendly spirit between the Company and its employees, to set forth conditions covering rates of pay, hours of work and conditions of employment to be observed between the parties and to provide a procedure for prompt and equitable resolution of grievances. To this end, this Agreement is signed in good faith by the two (2) parties.
- 1.2 It is recognized that the Company operates in a creative and innovative fashion, subject at all times to public judgment and regulatory authority, that creative work carries a creative responsibility and that the unique principles which are a part of the Company's history shall continue in the future, subject to the provisions of this Agreement. It is the intent of both parties that this Agreement support and reflect these goals.

If the parties are unable to agree, either party may submit the matter to the Canada Labour Relations Board for a decision.
- 2.2 When the Company creates a new classification within the bargaining unit, the Company shall provide the Union with the following information in writing prior to the posting for the new classification:

- a) Proposed job title
- b) Proposed pay group
- c) Proposed general description of the duties and responsibilities

The Union shall advise the Company, within five (5) working days of receiving the information, of any disagreement with the pay level of the new classification. Postings for new classifications will indicate that the job is a “newly created bargaining unit classification”.

Where the parties have a dispute over the following matters:

- i) Whether an additional position is properly excluded from the bargaining unit; or
- ii) Whether there is a substantive change in job content in an existing position excluded from the bargaining unit, associated with a change of position title change and the position no longer meets the criteria for exclusion under the Canada Labour Code;

Either party may submit the dispute to binding arbitration under Article 7 of the Collective Agreement or another agreed to method of dispute resolution.

2.4 On-Air Performers

- a) The parties recognize that broadcasting requires the continued maintenance of high standards of performance, creativity, and marketability (image), which with respect to the On-Air Talent (Anchors; Producer/Performers; Reporter, News; Reporter/Cameraperson; Reporter, Sports; Weather Announcer; Meteorologist; Entertainment Editor; Associate Producer/Announcer; Associate Producer/Anchor) are not capable of definition in solely objective terms. The parties also agree and understand that On-Air Talent are an integral part of the image and character of a television station and as such have special responsibilities that go beyond those of other bargaining unit employees. These include, but are not limited to: being highly acceptable to the viewing audience, appearing in public on the station's behalf, being involved in the community and representing one's self professionally, with dignity, at all times while appearing in public.

The Company will provide direction and assistance to such employees to assist the employee in achieving necessary standards of performance, creativity and marketability and/or to consistently fulfill his/her special responsibilities. The parties therefore agree that the Company reserves the right to remove from his/her role such an employee who, in its opinion fails to achieve such high standards of performance, creativity and marketability or has not met reasonable Company expectations regarding special responsibilities. Such right shall not be exercised in an arbitrary or discriminatory manner and not sooner than ten (10) days after an employee has been advised by written notice (which notice shall describe in reasonable detail the manner in which such employee has fallen short of such standards of performance, creativity and marketability and/or has not reasonably met Company expectations regarding special responsibilities). During such ten (10) day notice period, the Company may move such an employee into an assignment that would, in the Company's opinion, allow such an employee to achieve the necessary standards of performance, creativity and marketability and/or consistently fulfill his/her special responsibilities and not adversely impact the quality of programming.

An employee so removed shall exercise one of options i) or ii) as described in b) below. The right to remove an employee from his/her role shall not be used as a disciplinary measure and shall be in addition to and not in substitution for, the Company's right to apply discipline, which may only be exercised for just and sufficient cause.

Due to the uniqueness of the conditions of employment for On-Air Talent, extraordinary compensation arrangements may be necessary. It is therefore agreed that the Company may enter into special, fixed length contracts with On-Air Talent individually to cover rates of pay, hours of work, severance, etc., providing that such terms as a package are not inferior to the terms (as a package) contained in the Collective Agreement.

In recognition of the Union's status as exclusive bargaining agent for On-Air Talent, such contracts will become effective only upon approval of the Union. The Union will provide its response to the proposed contract within three (3) workdays of its receipt.

b) An employee removed from his/her classification under this Article shall select one of the following options:

i) Receive a lump sum severance payment commensurate with his/her service as of the date the removal takes place as follows:

Post probation to three (3) completed years of service – three (3) months severance pay;

More than three (3) years service - four (4) weeks of pay for each year of service with pro rata credit for any part year of service (calculated to the nearest month) to a maximum of 104 weeks of severance pay;

Such severance pay shall include and be in lieu of any notice or severance pay obligations established by the Canada Labour Code and any other applicable statute or legal requirement.

- ii) Exercise his/her seniority to displace a less senior employee or fill a vacancy in any other job classification other than an On-Air Talent classification, in which the employee has previously successfully performed the duties of the other classification or has the ability to perform the job immediately upon reassignment or following a reasonable familiarization period of four (4) weeks. In the event a less senior employee is displaced by an On-Air Talent, the employee shall be permitted to exercise his/her seniority rights as per the Collective Agreement. An On-Air Talent who exercises his/her seniority rights under this Article to displace a less senior employee shall have his/her previous salary maintained for the first three (3) calendar months in his/her new classification, following which the employee shall be placed in the rate on the salary scale of his/her new classification which is closest to his/her previous rate;
- iii) An employee terminated pursuant to this Article shall be granted reasonable access to Company facilities to produce air-checks and such other material, which may be required to assist the employee in securing new employment.

NON-DISCRIMINATION/HARASSMENT POLICY

Preamble

All employees of the Company are entitled to employment in a work environment that is free of discrimination and harassment. This Policy and procedure outlines the commitment of the Company and the Union to ensure a harassment-free workplace as required under the Canadian Human Rights Act and will act as a guide to employees in adhering to legal and social guidelines regarding the recognition and prevention of harassment.

This Policy exists to underline the seriousness of workplace harassment and to establish that there is no acceptable level of harassment within the Company. Employees who feel that they are being harassed are encouraged to seek protection under this Policy.

Proscribed grounds include race, national or ethnic origin, colour, religion, age, gender, marital status, family status, disability and conviction for which a pardon has been granted.

Harassment on any of these grounds, including personal and sexual harassment, is a form of misconduct.

The Company has made and will continue to make every reasonable effort to ensure that no employee is subject to discrimination or harassment by any other person, while performing his/her employment responsibilities.

Definition of Discrimination/Harassment

Harassment is defined as a “course of vexatious comment or conduct that is known or ought reasonably to be known to be unwelcome, that denies individual dignity and respect on the basis of such grounds as sex, disability, race, colour, sexual orientation and other prohibited grounds”, as defined by the Canadian Human Rights Act. All employees are expected to treat others with courtesy and consideration and to discourage harassment.

Conduct that is discriminatory or harassing may involve one or a series of incidents. Such conduct occurs when:

- a) submission to such conduct is reasonably perceived as a term or condition of employment (including availability or continuation of work, promotional or training opportunities);
- b) submission to or rejection of such conduct is used to influence decisions or employment matters;
- c) such conduct interferes with an individual’s job performance;
- d) such conduct humiliates, insults or intimidates any individual.

Discrimination or harassment can include (but is not limited to):

- a) verbal abuse or threats;
- b) unwelcome remarks, jokes and innuendos, or taunting about a person’s body, attire, or sexual orientation;
- c) practical jokes which cause awkwardness or embarrassment;
- d) unwelcome invitations or requests, whether indirect or explicit, or intimidation;
- e) leering at a person’s body or other gestures;

- f) condescension which undermines self-respect;
- g) unnecessary physical contact such as touching, patting, pinching, punching;
- h) physical (sexual) assault.

What Harassment is Not

Properly discharged supervisory responsibilities including disciplinary action are not considered to be harassment. Neither is this Policy meant to inhibit free speech or interfere with normal social relations.

How to Tell if Harassment has Occurred

Harassment will be considered to have taken place if a reasonable person ought to have known that such behaviour was unwelcome. Examples of questions that would indicate whether an activity is welcomed are:

- a) Would you want that employee acting the same way with your loved one (your spouse or child)?
- b) Would that employee behave the same way if someone they were in a relationship with was standing nearby?
- c) Was there an equal initiation and participation between the parties?

What to Do if You Are Being Discriminated Against or Harassed

Discriminated Against – An employee who believes that he/she has been discriminated against under the provisions of the Canada Human Rights Act should follow the steps outlined in the Non-Discrimination/Harassment Policy. In the event the employee raises an issue with the Union only, the Union representative shall immediately report the claim to the Department Head.

Harassed – An employee who believes that he/she is being harassed should not assume that the problem will go away by itself. The employee should not assume that the harassment has to be endured because of possible retaliation, nor should the employee feel guilty or embarrassed. The following steps should be followed where possible:

- Step 1: Say “NO!”. Tell the person who is harassing you that his/her behaviour is unwelcome by clearly describing the behaviour that you find unacceptable and asking that the behaviour stop.
- Step 2: Make a record of the harassment – date, time, location, what happened, witnesses, any action you took to stop the behaviour.
- Step 3: If the harassment continues despite your objections, lodge a complaint with your Department Head and/or your Union representative and/or Human Resources. The record from Step 2 will assist in the investigation of the complaint.

NOTE – In either case, if you believe that it would be inappropriate to lodge the complaint with your Department Head, then you should lodge the complaint with the General Manager.

Resolving the Complaint

Upon receipt of the complaint, an investigation will be undertaken which will involve interviewing: the complainant, the alleged harasser, and anyone else who has information.

The alleged harasser will be made aware of the complaint and be given an opportunity to respond.

All information gathered will be held in strict confidence and documented.

The complainant’s name and/or the circumstances relating to the complaint will not be disclosed to any person except where disclosure is necessary for the purpose of investigating the complaint or initiating disciplinary measures.

If harassment is founded, the harasser may be subject to appropriate discipline up to and including termination.

If the complaint is found to be without merit, all documentation will be destroyed. In order to protect the alleged harasser's reputation, those individuals who were involved in the investigation will be advised that the complaint was unfounded.

Article 6 No Strike, No Lockout, No Strike-Breaking

6.1 The Union will not cause nor permit its members to cause, nor will any member of the bargaining unit take part in a slowdown or a strike, either a sit-down or stay-in or any kind of cessation of work or in any other kind of strike or any other kind of interference or any work stoppage whatsoever, either total or partial, while this Agreement is in force. The Company will not cause nor permit its employees to cause, engage in or permit a lockout of any of its employees within the bargaining unit while this Agreement is in force.

6.2 The Company will not require any employees to perform the duties of any other person who is engaged in a lawful strike or to originate a program or programs expressly for the purpose of strike breaking.

6.3 An employee shall have the right to refuse to go to any television station; transmitter site or a location where a legal strike or lockout of persons whose functions are similar to those covered by this Agreement is in progress. Such refusal shall not be considered grounds for disciplinary action, except that ENG, EFP and Microwave Truck Operators will be required to perform their news functions.

Article 7 Grievance and Arbitration Procedure

7.1 For the purpose of this Article, unless otherwise specified, the reference to "Union" shall mean the steward or Unit Chair.

Grievance – An employee shall have the right to grieve any complaint arising from the application, interpretation, administration or alleged violation of this Agreement. It is understood that nothing contained in this Article is intended to preclude the informal discussion and review of employee concerns or complaints between employees and members of management. The parties recognize that the Canada Labour Code provides that any employee may present his/her personal grievance to the Company at any time. Any such grievance may be subject to consideration and adjustment as provided in the following Articles on grievance procedure.

- 7.2 No employee shall have a grievance until the employee, with the assistance of a Union representative if so desired, has met with his/her immediate Manager with the objective of resolving the complaint. Such a meeting shall occur not later than ten (10) days following the date from which the employee became aware or reasonably should have become aware of the event or circumstances giving rise to the complaint. A written response shall be made to the employee with a copy to the Unit Chair within five (5) working days of this meeting. If the matter is not resolved, the following shall be the procedure for the adjustment and settlement thereof:

STEP 1

In the event the complaint is not resolved, a grievance may be taken up in the following manner and sequence provided it is presented within ten (10) working days of the Manager's reply to the complaint: the Union shall present the grievance in writing, in the case of an individual grievance, to the Departmental Manager (or designate) setting forth the nature of the grievance, and the remedy sought. The Departmental Manager (or designate) shall arrange a meeting with the Union within ten (10) working days of the receipt of the grievance at which the griever, in the case of an individual grievance, may attend, if requested by either party, and discuss the grievance. The Departmental Manager (or designate) may have such assistance at the meeting as is considered necessary. The Departmental Manager (or designate) will give the National Representative and Unit Chair a decision in writing within ten (10) working days or less following the meeting with a copy to the griever and the Union.

STEP 2

In the event that the grievance is not resolved in STEP 1, the grievance may be referred to the Director of Human Resources (or designate), and a Union National Representative and Unit Chair for further discussion and consideration within fifteen (15) working days. The Company shall provide the National Representative and Unit Chair with written notice of its decision within ten (10) working days of their discussion and/or meeting.

STEP 3

In the event the Director of Human Resources (or designate) and the National Representative and Unit Chair are unable to reach a resolution in STEP 2, either party may, by notice in writing given to the other, within twenty (20) working days, submit the grievance to final and binding arbitration.

The notice of the party referring the matter to arbitration shall include the name of the proposed sole Arbitrator, which is to be mutually agreed upon. If the parties are unable to agree on the selection of an Arbitrator within twenty (20) working days once formal notice is given, the Federal Minister of Labour shall be requested to appoint the Arbitrator. The Company and the Union local shall each pay one-half (1/2) of the remuneration and expenses of the Arbitrator. Neither party shall be obligated to pay any part of the cost of any stenographic transcript of an arbitration hearing without its express consent.

- 7.3 Arbitrator – The Arbitrator shall not be authorized to alter, modify, or amend the provisions of this Agreement nor to make any decision inconsistent therewith. Where the Arbitrator determines that a disciplinary penalty or discharge is excessive, it may substitute such other penalty for the discipline or discharge as it considers just and reasonable in all the circumstances.
- 7.4 Time Limits – Any time limit mentioned under the Grievance Procedure shall be counted as working days, excluding Saturdays, Sundays and Statutory Holidays. The time limits imposed upon either party of any STEP in the Grievance Procedure may be extended by mutual written agreement. A request for extension of the time limit made prior to the expiry of such time limit shall not be denied on an arbitrary basis.
- 7.5 Where no reply is given to a grievance within the time limits specified, and no extension was agreed to, the Union or the Company, as the case may be, shall be entitled to submit the grievance to the next step in the Grievance Procedure.

- 7.6 Grievances involving the discharge or discipline of an employee may be submitted at STEP 2 of the Grievance Procedure.
- 7.7 The Company shall have the right to file a grievance in writing signed by the Director of Human Resources (or designate), with the Union within ten (10) working days of when the circumstances giving rise to the grievance were known or should reasonably have been known to the Company. A meeting will be held with the Union within ten (10) working days of the presentation of the grievance and the Union shall give the Company its written reply to the grievance in ten (10) working days following the meeting. Failing settlement, such grievance may be referred to arbitration under this Article within twenty (20) working days of the date the Company received the Union's reply.
- 7.8 The Union shall have the right to file a 'policy' grievance in writing with the Company within ten (10) working days of when the circumstances giving rise to the grievance were known or should reasonably have been known to the Union. Failing settlement, a meeting will be held with the Union within ten (10) working days of the presentation of the grievance and the Company shall give the Union its written reply to the grievance in ten (10) working days following the meeting. Failing settlement, such grievance may be referred to arbitration under this Article within twenty (20) working days of the date the Union received the Company's reply.
- 7.9 In the event, that more than one (1) employee is affected by the same circumstances and based on the same incident, such grievances may be combined and treated as a group grievance.
- 7.10 The Company shall compensate the Unit Chair and stewards at their regular salary plus applicable shift differential for time spent in attending meetings with the Company and in servicing grievances up to but not including arbitration. Any time spent in such meetings shall not be considered for the purpose of determining regular or overtime pay, if the meetings extend beyond their regularly scheduled shift. It is understood that such meetings may be held, with mutual consent, at times when employees are not scheduled to work.

- 7.11 Employees shall suffer no loss of regular salaries or other benefits while investigating grievances, or while attending grievance meetings with the Company.

Article 8 Report on Performance

- 8.1 Employees who have completed their probationary period shall be notified in writing, of any expression of dissatisfaction concerning his/her work, within ten (10) working days of cause for dissatisfaction becoming known to his/her immediate Manager. He/she shall be provided with a copy of any complaint or accusation which may be detrimental to his/her advancement or standing within the Company, as soon as possible after the complaint or accusation is made. If this procedure is not followed, such expression of dissatisfaction shall not become part of his/her record for use against him/her at any time.
- 8.2 Employees may respond, in writing to any such complaint or accusation and if the written reply is received by their immediate Manager within ten (10) working days of receiving the notice referred to above, the reply shall become part of their record for use by them at any time.
- 8.3 An Employee shall have access to his/her personnel file in the presence of his/her supervisor during office hours, once every six (6) months (or earlier in the case of a grievance), at a mutually agreeable time, but in no event later than five (5) working days after the initial request.
- 8.4 All references to disciplinary action at a level less than a suspension shall be removed from the employee's personnel file after eighteen (18) months of the date of such action being taken, provided that the employee does not incur any further disciplinary actions of a similar nature within the eighteen (18) month period.

All references to disciplinary action involving a suspension shall be removed from the employee's personnel file after twenty-four (24) months of the date of such action being taken, provided that the employee does not incur any further disciplinary actions of a similar nature within the twenty-four (24) month period. Absences shall not be included in this calculation.

- 8.5 In lieu of the application of Article 8.1, it is agreed that probationary employees shall receive feedback and direction on their performance during their probationary period. The parties agree that further to Article 2.5 and 2.6, Employee Categories & Definitions, in cases where a probationary employee is experiencing performance or conduct problems during his/her probationary period the Company will verbally notify both the employee and the Union of such issues which may affect the employee's standing with the Company.
- 8.6 Employees shall have the right to take their steward (or Unit Chair) if he/she is located at the same location as the employee, otherwise the steward shall assist) with them to any disciplinary meeting involving Management personnel. The employee shall notify the Company in advance if he/she is bringing a Union representative to the meeting.
- 8.7 Nothing in this Article shall prevent the Company from continuing its practice of providing Performance Development Plans for employees and meeting with employees to discuss such. It is understood that a Performance Development Plan is not a Report on Performance (i.e. disciplinary action) and shall not be considered in the event disciplinary action is taken.

Article 9 Seniority Rights

- 9.1 Seniority for full-time employees shall be defined as the length of continuous service in the bargaining unit for all employees since the date of last hiring. Seniority for part-time employees shall commence in the same manner but shall be equal to the length of service in accumulated hours worked. Seniority for part-time employees shall be broken and cease to exist after a break in service of six (6) months.

- 9.1.1 Seniority shall not be established until the probationary period, and any extension thereof, as set out in Article 2, has been served but shall then be calculated from the date of hire.
- 9.1.2 Seniority shall exist but not accumulate during any leave of absence approved by the Company, except as provided in this Agreement (e.g., Article 4.6).
- 9.1.3 The principle of seniority shall apply as set forth in the applicable Articles in cases of promotions and transfers (Article 10), layoff and recall, severance and vacation scheduling.
- 9.1.4 The Company shall prepare a seniority list showing the name, date of hire and classification of each employee in the bargaining unit. An up-to-date copy of the seniority list shall be posted in all workplaces and a copy shall be sent to the Union every six (6) months.
- 9.1.5 A person shall lose all seniority with the Company if he or she:
 - i) Retires or voluntarily quits the employ of the Company; or
 - ii) Is discharged and such discharge is not reversed through the Grievance Procedure; or
 - iii) Is absent for five (5) consecutive working days unless a satisfactory reason is given to the Company; or
 - iv) Fails to return to work upon termination of an authorized leave of absence or fails to utilize a leave of absence for the purpose indicated at the time the leave of absence was granted unless a satisfactory reason is given to the Company.

9.2 Layoffs

When layoffs are to be made, the Company shall determine the classifications where reductions are required and the number of employees to be laid off. The Company shall post such a declaration in the workplace along with the bargaining unit seniority list on the date layoffs are announced.

Layoffs shall proceed in inverse order of Company seniority within those job classifications in Article 27. Regardless of work assignment, the least senior employees in a classification where reductions are required shall be laid off from such classification. The Union agrees the Company may offer senior employees within an affected classification a voluntary separation package as part of a work force reduction program consistent with Article 9.4. The Company agrees to consider an application from a senior employee, in an affected classification, who may wish to volunteer to be laid off (consistent with Article 9.4) if it would prevent the layoff of a junior employee.

Employees who are eligible to displace another employee but elect to be laid off from their employment shall, in addition to the payments under Article 9.4, receive one (1) additional week of severance pay per year of service to a maximum of twelve (12) additional weeks of severance pay.

- 9.2.1 An employee about to be laid off from a classification who wishes to displace a less senior employee in a classification at the same or lower level for which the employee possesses the occupational qualifications must notify the Company, in writing, of the classification the employee wishes to assume within forty-eight (48) hours of being notified of the layoff. Occupational qualifications may include: creativity, knowledge, experience, skill and ability. If an employee fails to provide such notice to the Company, the employee will be deemed to have abandoned any rights under this Article. No employee is to be displaced by a more senior employee unless the latter possesses the occupational qualifications to perform the job filled by the employee with less seniority. It is agreed that an employee may require a reasonable period of familiarization in the new classification, which shall not exceed for four (4) weeks. It is understood that an employee who would otherwise be familiar with a method or process may require guidance on new or unfamiliar equipment/software as part of the familiarization period.

If the employee has successfully performed the duties in the new classification during the familiarization period, the employee will be transferred to the position following the familiarization period. In the event the employee has not demonstrated his/her ability to satisfactorily perform the duties in the new classification, during the familiarization period, the employee will be laid off within the familiarization period and shall elect (within forty-eight (48) hours) to either be on the re-engagement list in accordance with Article 9.6 or to receive severance pay as per Article 9.4. In the event such an employee does not notify the Company within forty-eight (48) hours the employee will be deemed to have elected to receive severance.

9.2.2 The Company shall advise the employees and the Union through one announcement by way of the declaration described in Article 9.2 to all employees covered under this Agreement at least six (6) weeks in advance of the proposed layoff, or such length of time as prescribed by legislation. In lieu of such notice the Company shall pay the affected employee(s) six (6) weeks pay, less the amount worked by the employee during the notice period. For example, if two (2) weeks are worked, then only four (4) weeks shall be paid. Employees who are displaced in accordance with Article 9.2.1 shall be deemed to have received notice of layoff at the time of declaration referred to above, provided that they are advised and laid off within the six (6) week notification period. A further notification period of four (4) weeks shall be added to the initial period for any affected employee who has not been advised and laid off within the initial six (6) week period.

Employees who elect to receive severance pay in accordance with Article 9.4 will be deemed to have been laid off and abandoned any recall rights.

The Company shall provide the Union with copies of all advice, notices, declarations, applications, elections, and documents relevant to the layoff procedure within twelve (12) hours of said documents being presented. In addition the Company agrees to release Union official(s) from work, without loss of pay or other benefits, to assist affected employees during the layoff process. It is understood that Union official(s) may be released when it is necessary to directly assist a particular employee, on request, or to be available to provide general advice and assistance to affected employees at specific times during the notification period.

- 9.3 An employee who has reverted to a lower salary group under Article 9.2.1 shall assume the salary on the new scale in accordance with the chart below. Such an employee's placement on the new scale shall be established based on credit for years of service within the classification and any credit for industry experience recognized by the Company at the time the employee initiated the new position.

Seniority	Number of months from the date the employee initiated the new position until the salary reverts to the new scale
Less than 1 year	1 month
1 – 3 years	12 months
Greater than 3 years	24 months

- 9.4 Employees laid off and deemed terminated pursuant to any statute, will receive severance pay equal to three (3) weeks pay for each year of continuous service to a maximum seventy-eight (78) weeks. With respect to incomplete years, the severance pay shall be on a prorated basis, calculated to the nearest month. The above noted severance payment shall be deemed to include any severance required pursuant to any statute.
- 9.5 While an employee is laid off, the Company will continue the group health (except for elective Dental and Vision Treatment, STD, LTD and Life Insurance) and benefit payments for the period of layoff up to a maximum of six (6) months or until the employee is eligible for benefits at a new place of employment.

9.6 Re-engagement of Laid Off Employees – Employees will retain their seniority and have recall rights as follows:

- a) Employees with less than one (1) year seniority will retain recall rights for six (6) months.
- b) Employees with more than one (1) year seniority will retain recall rights for twelve (12) months.
- c) Employees with more than three (3) years seniority will retain recall rights for twenty-four (24) months.

9.6.1 When full-time vacancies occur, the Company agrees to recall former employees who have recall rights in accordance with Article 9.6 and have the occupational qualifications to fill the vacancy, in order of Company seniority. Employees accepting a recall in other than their previous job classification shall be paid the wage appropriate to the new classification. It is agreed that an employee may require a reasonable period of familiarization in the new classification which shall not exceed four (4) weeks. It is understood that an employee who would otherwise be familiar with a method or process may require guidance on new or unfamiliar equipment/software as part of the familiarization period.

If the employee has successfully performed the duties in the new classification during the familiarization period, the employee will be transferred to the position at the end of the familiarization period. In the event the employee has not demonstrated his/her ability to satisfactorily perform the duties in the new classification, during the familiarization period, the employee will be laid off within the familiarization period, resume their recall period, and the employee shall lose recall rights to this classification.

Notwithstanding the above, employees who had exercised their Company seniority and moved to another job classification at time of layoff (Article 9.2.1) shall have first recall rights to their previous classification when a vacancy occurs therein.

- 9.6.2 The Company's responsibility will be considered fulfilled if the Company gives notice, in writing, by registered mail to the employee's last known address. If the employee does not advise the Company of his/her intentions within five (5) business days and return to work within a further seven (7) days of the date of the recall notice (if the employee is on layoff), or on the date specified in the recall notice, whichever is the later, or make alternate arrangements which are mutually acceptable, the employee will have waived that recall.

An employee who may not be available for recall for personal or other reasons, and has not advised the Company, shall be deemed to have abandoned all recall rights.

- 9.6.3 If an employee is recalled or re-engaged prior to the expiry of recall rights, as indicated above, seniority shall be considered unbroken.
- 9.7 The Company agrees that it will not consistently schedule overtime in order to affect or extend layoffs.

Article 10 Promotions and Transfers

- 10.1 Promotions – Where the Company decides that a position is to be filled or created within the bargaining unit on a permanent or regular part-time basis, the Company shall post a notice of vacancy which will include the proposed job title, for a minimum of five (5) days. Employees from within and outside the bargaining unit may apply during the posting period.

When the Company requires a temporary employee to cover: a project or production of a predetermined length of time not to exceed twelve (12) months, vacation relief, maternity leave, child care leave or leave of absence, the Company will post the position. The successful applicant will be reassigned to the temporary position without loss of seniority or benefits. The employee will be on trial for a period of up to three (3) months in the new position. The Company may, at any time during this period, return the employee to the former position with no loss of seniority. Nothing in this clause shall prevent the Company from hiring (without posting a position) a temporary employee in accordance with Article 2.6 to temporarily replace an employee accepted on a posting for a temporary assignment.

The parties acknowledge that where it is not possible to determine with certainty the length of the reassignment to a temporary position the Company may end a temporary reassignment at any time and return the employee to the former position with no loss of seniority. At the conclusion of the temporary reassignment, the employee shall return to his/her former position. Where the Company decides that the position is to be filled on a permanent basis it is understood the position will be posted in accordance with this Article.

Extensions of the temporary reassignment will be agreed to by the parties where in the circumstances it is reasonable to do so.

- 10.1.1 Promotions and transfers to jobs within the bargaining unit shall be based on qualifications established by the Company. These qualifications may include: creativity, knowledge, experience, skill, ability, training and/or education, as well as other relevant factors. Providing that one or more of the applicants satisfactorily meets or exceeds the qualifications, the Company shall award the position to the best applicant. Company seniority will be considered when evaluating applicants. When two (2) or more employees' qualifications are relatively equal, Company seniority shall apply. If there is no applicant who satisfactorily meets the qualifications established for the position, the Company may hire from any source.

The Company encourages employees to self-identify to managers when they are interested in training opportunities. Management will make best efforts to offer these opportunities in a fair and equitable manner. The Company and the Union agree this paragraph will not be subject to the grievance procedure.

- 10.1.2 An employee who is promoted or transferred to another position shall be on trial for a period of up to three (3) months. The Company may, at any time during this trial period, return the employee to the former classification with no loss of seniority. At the conclusion of a successful trial period the employee will be advised, in writing, that the promotion or transfer has been confirmed.
- 10.1.3 It is recognized that the Company may, from time to time, require employees to perform work in a job classification other than their regular classification. Employees who perform in a job classification different from their regular classification will not be penalized for errors committed during such performance if such errors are not a result of negligence.
- 10.1.4 Should an application for promotion or transfer be unsuccessful, it is agreed that management will discuss with the employee, if so requested, why his/her promotion or transfer was denied and will bring to the employee's attention any concerns, which may affect his/her opportunities for advancement.
- 10.1.5 The Company shall post electronic notice of full-time and regular part-time vacancies at its PL, WI and NX locations and shall send a copy to the Union.
- 10.1.6 Relocation – The Company shall not transfer any employee to another city to work without the consent of the employee.
- 10.1.7 No employee shall be penalized in any way for refusing to accept a promotion.
- 10.1.8 Should an application for transfer to a lower wage classification be successful, the employee's rate of pay shall be set no less than at the 2 year wage rate within the lower classification. If the employee's current wage rate is lower than the 2 year wage rate of the lower classification, the employee's salary shall remain at his/her current wage rate until his/her salary reaches the 2 year wage in the new classification.

Article 11 Jurisdiction, New Devices and Methods

- 11.1 The Company agrees not to assign duties relating but not limited to the preparation, administration, audition, rehearsal and/or broadcast of the Company's television programs and overall operation, including the operation of technical equipment, to other than employees in the bargaining unit if such work assignment directly avoids the hiring of a full-time employee in the bargaining unit, directly results in a layoff, or avoids a recall from layoff of a full-time employee. It is agreed that the Company's obligations under this Article shall apply only with respect to work on television programs, web based programs or productions produced exclusively by and for the Company at the Company's premises.
- 11.2 Technological Change – Should the introduction, replacement, supplementation or modification of any systems/processes, machinery, equipment or device result in the layoff of employees as distinguished from layoffs, caused by changes in programming, the Company agrees to the following conditions:
- i) The Company shall give the Union and the employees affected as much advance notice as is practicable, but not less than four (4) months notification of such layoffs or four (4) months pay in lieu of said notice plus all other benefits for the same period. Also, the employee shall receive severance pay as outlined in Article 9.4.
 - ii) The Company shall notify the Union in writing stating the nature of the change contemplated and the number of jobs likely to be affected. Upon receipt of such notice by the Union, the parties shall arrange a meeting, or meetings, for the purpose of conducting discussions which will achieve an understanding to assure that any hardship to the employees affected shall be minimized; this shall be done by providing wherever possible, alternative employment within the Company for employees whose jobs have been eliminated or by joint efforts on the part of the Company and the Union to obtain employment outside the Company, and/or by any other means that the parties, may, by mutual agreement, decide upon. The Company will provide such employees reasonable time off, during their normal workweek without loss of salary, to be interviewed for positions outside the Company.

- 11.3 Program Credits – As the parties have recognized that creative work carries creative responsibility, the Company will provide television program credits on all productions one-half (1/2) hour in length or greater. The parties further agree that news and weekly strip programs will provide credits once a week. The content of these credits will be at the Company's sole discretion. When using an employee's credit or likeness for promotion or any other media use, the Company shall consult the employees involved when practicable.
- 11.4 The Company will display the Union logo and local name in the credits for productions produced exclusively by the Company.

- 21.7 Time credited for the return journey under the above conditions will be computed in the same manner.

Expense or per diem allowances will be calculated at the Canadian/Foreign Country rate and paid in Canadian funds for travel outside of Canada. Costs of currency conversion or purchase of foreign funds will be reimbursed upon submission of receipts on an expense statement.

New Year's Day	Civic Holiday
Good Friday	Labour Day
	Thanksgiving Day
Victoria Day	Christmas Day
Canada Day	Boxing Day

Plus any day proclaimed by the Federal Government as a public holiday.

- a) In addition to the holidays listed above, employees may be eligible for up to two (2) Personal Floater Days per calendar year. Eligibility to Personal Floater Days is determined as follows:
 - Any new employee is eligible to two (2) Personal Floater Days if actively at work for at least 9 months in the calendar year;
 - Any new employee is eligible to one (1) Personal Floater Day if actively at work for at least 3 months but less than 9 months in the calendar year;

- Any new employee is not eligible to Personal Floater Days if actively at work for less than 3 months in the calendar year.
- b) Personal floater days not taken during the calendar year cannot be carried over to the next calendar year and are forfeited.

When one of the holidays listed above falls on a Saturday or Sunday and another week day is proclaimed a holiday by the Federal or Provincial Government, the Saturday or Sunday shall be deemed to be the holiday for the purposes of this Agreement, except for those employees who regularly work Monday through Friday, in which case the proclaimed day shall be the holiday.

Employees who for personal or religious reasons wish to observe a holiday other than the above listed paid holidays may, upon reasonable advance written notice (3 weeks), request that one of the paid holidays, or the floating holiday, be considered as a normal working day and that another day be substituted and that the substituted holiday shall be treated as a paid holiday for the purposes of this Agreement.

22.2 Holiday Compensation – Employees shall be compensated for the holidays listed in Article 21.1 in the following manner:

- i) If the holiday falls on a scheduled day off, the employee may add one day to his/her annual vacation.
- ii) If a holiday falls on a regular working day or on a scheduled day off and the employee is required to work, he/she shall receive three (3) times their basic hourly rate (which includes the employee's basic hourly rate of pay) with a minimum credit of the standard work day as scheduled for that week for all hours worked.

leave of absence, or on sick leave, or for other reasons authorized by the Company.

22.3 Scheduling of Christmas and New Year's Holidays – By November 15th of each year the employees will advise the Company in writing of their preference of days off to be scheduled over the Christmas and New Year's holidays. The employees' choice of days off shall be granted on the basis of seniority within the job classification and each employee, if the employee so requests, shall be scheduled off on either Christmas Day or New Year's Day. This article does not apply to an employee who has elected to substitute a holiday for either Christmas or New Year's Day (Article 21.1). An employee scheduled off on one of these days shall not be required to work beyond 20:00 hours on the eve of that holiday.

22.4 Employees shall be entitled to an annual vacation with pay in accordance with the following table.

The annual vacation year is defined as January to December. Annual Vacation entitlement is to be taken between January 1 of the calendar year in which it is earned and April 30 of the following year. Employees are not permitted to take the next fiscal year's vacation in advance. Individuals, who leave the Company having taken unearned vacation leave, will have an equivalent amount deducted from their final payroll.

Vacation scheduling shall be scheduled between June 1st and September 30th and preference shall be given to employees on the basis of Union seniority. The employees request for earned vacation shall be submitted in writing, on a form prescribed by the Company, by March 31st

Summer vacation schedules shall be posted by May 1st each year.

Vacations may be granted on a first come first serve basis outside the vacation period when requested by an employee and approved by the Company and in this case, confirmation of the vacation shall be either confirmed or denied in writing within one week of the request thereof by the department head.

The vacation schedule for a part time employee is the same as that for a full time employee, except that it is pro-rated based on time worked. The time worked considered for calculating the prorated vacation is the employee's scheduled time. For example, if a person is scheduled to work 2 days per week throughout the year, he or she will earn 2/5th of the days under the above vacation schedule.

Employees who have already reached a vacation entitlement that is greater than Bell's policy as of January 1, 2014, will be grandfathered at their existing entitlement until they reach a higher vacation entitlement under Bell's policy.

Vacation not taken in time off prior to leaving the company will not be paid (except what is required by the Labour Code if applicable). In such circumstances, the employee's vacation eligibility before leaving the company is pro-rated according to the portion of the year worked.

The Company shall have the right to determine the number of employees, who may be released for vacation from any job classification at any one time. Preference shall be given on the basis of Company seniority within the job classification, provided that an employee with more seniority may not require the Company to alter a scheduled vacation of an employee with less Company seniority once the vacation period has been confirmed by the Company. Subject to the above conditions, employees may take their vacation at any time by submitting their request to their supervisor at least sixty (60) days in advance of the proposed vacation period. The Company shall confirm the vacation period at least thirty (30) days in advance of the proposed vacation period.

Overtime for scheduled employees shall be defined as a period worked in excess of seven and one-half (7 ½) hours in a scheduled day or in excess of thirty-seven and one-half (37 ½) hours in a week. A “shift” shall mean the authorized and/or approved time worked by an employee during a day, calculated to the end of the last quarter (1/4) hour in which work was performed. If a shift extends beyond midnight, it shall be considered as falling wholly within the calendar day in which it starts. There will be no assignment of split shifts without the consent of the employee; however, part-time employees may elect to accept more than one shift in one day.

Schedules other than those described above shall be permitted upon mutual agreement of the parties.

24.2 Overtime Payments

Where such assignment constitutes more than sixteen (16) hours of overtime over the fourteen (14) day period the next most junior qualified employee may be so assigned.

In the case of work or an assignment of a continuing nature or a business emergency, the employee who had been assigned to the work or assignment may be required to perform the overtime.

24.3 Days Off – There shall be two (2) consecutive days off. These two (2) scheduled days off may be in separate workweeks, i.e., Saturday and Sunday. The Company shall make every effort to schedule the days off on weekends as frequently as possible, but in no event shall an employee be required to work more than two (2) weekends in a row without the employee's prior consent unless weekend work is a condition of hire, transfer or promotion. On-Air Talent (as per Article 2.4) and News Producers may not receive weekends off in accordance with this Article.

Where two (2) or more days off are taken consecutively, or in conjunction with a paid holiday or leave of absence, only one 10 hour turnaround period shall apply.

Work on a Scheduled Day Off: An employee may refuse to work on a scheduled day off and shall not be penalized for such refusal. However, should all employees in the job classification refuse to work on a day off; the Company may assign the work to any available qualified employee in reverse order of seniority in that classification. Where such assignment constitutes more than sixteen (16) hours of overtime over the fourteen (14) day period the next most junior qualified employee may be so assigned.

24.6 Employees may elect to bank overtime earnings as time in lieu to be taken at a mutually agreeable time. A maximum of five (5) days may be in an employee's bank at any time. A day off in lieu is defined as twenty-four (24) hours plus the turnaround period and shall be scheduled at a mutually agreeable time.

employee's schedule shall be posted in his/her immediate work area. It is the intent of the foregoing to ensure that each employee is advised of his/her work schedule at the earliest possible time. It will be the responsibility of the employee to check the posted schedule. Employees may not switch or vary shifts without prior written authorization from his/her manager. Any alteration or change of an employee's hours of work will be done for operational purposes only and not in a discriminating or punitive fashion.

- 24.8 Each employee's schedule shall state clearly daily starting time, finishing time, days off, holidays off, vacation days.
- 24.9 After this posting, there shall be no reduction in the number of hours scheduled for any day in the week without notice being given by 1:00 p.m. of the day prior to the day in question. If such notice is not given the employee shall be credited with all hours originally scheduled. If the schedule is changed on the employee's day off the Company will be responsible to notify the employee personally of such change.
- 24.10 An employee's days off will not be changed once the schedule has been posted without the employee's prior consent.
- 24.11 No employee shall be required to work in excess of eight (8) consecutive calendar days without his/her prior consent.
- 24.12 Change of Schedules – Notice of change of starting time shall be given as much in advance as possible, but not later than 1:00 p.m. of the day prior to the day of the change. If such notice is not given, the employee shall be credited with all hours originally scheduled. If the changes to schedules occur within 24 hours of the start of the shift, the changes will occur by mutual consent. If the employee does not agree to the shift change by mutual consent, the Company reserves the right to assign the shift change to the least senior employee. If the schedule is changed on the employee's day off the Company will be responsible to notify the employee personally of such change.

24.13 It is the responsibility of an employee to report to the Supervisor in charge of scheduling, advising when he/she will be available for duty following absence due to illness or physical injury. It is the Company's responsibility to then or subsequently inform the employee of any change in his/her schedule.

24.14 It is the intent of the foregoing to ensure that each employee shall be apprised of his/her daily work schedule at the earliest possible time.

In such case the employee shall be paid at one and one-half (1 ½) the basic hourly rate with a minimum credit of four (4) hours. Call-back shall be computed separately from the workweek.

Employees may refuse to work a call-back and shall not be penalized for such refusal. Should all qualified employees who could be reached, refuse a call-back the Company may assign the required call-back to any qualified member of the bargaining unit, in inverse order of functional group seniority.

24.19 Temporary Upgrades – In the event that an employee is temporarily assigned to perform work for a period of at least one (1) hour and not for purposes of training, in a higher classification or classifications than that to which he/she is permanently assigned, in or outside the bargaining unit, the employee shall be paid a premium of five percent (5%) of his/her basic rate per hour for each classification level higher than the employee's classification for all hours worked with a minimum credit of two (2) hours. Letter of Agreement # 1
Unifor Social Justice Fund

In the event an employee elects to contribute one (1) cent/hour worked to the Unifor Social Justice Fund, the Union will notify the Company of such and the Company will make the appropriate deductions and remit such contributions to the Unifor Social Justice Fund on a monthly basis. All such contributions are tax deductible.

Letter of Agreement # 2 Clothing Allowance, Article 26.7

The Company agrees to apply the terms of the clothing allowance to employees under the following criteria;

If the employee appears on air between 13 and 26 occasions during the previous 6 months of each installment of clothing allowance payments on September 1 and March 1, the employee will receive $337.50

If the employee appears on air more than 26 occasions during the previous 6 months of each installment of clothing allowance payments on September 1 and March 1, the employee will receive $675.00

Letter of Agreement #3

The Company confirms that it will secure the Special Retirement Allowance (SRA) through a Retirement Compensation Agreement (RCA) as defined under the Income Tax Act. Therefore, the Company will fund the SRA on an annual basis through a RCA via a separate trust.

Letter of Agreement #4 Drone Operations

It is the responsibility of the Employer to provide the appropriate certification and training of employees operating airborne drone equipment. In the event of a third party legal action against an employee in the bargaining unit pertaining to the operation of airborne drone equipment, the Employer shall assume all liability for damages awarded by a civil court of law for an employee in the bargaining unit that is authorized to operate drone equipment during the course of a business day, provided that the employee was operating the equipment in a lawful and good faith manner and in compliance with the mandated restrictions. In the event that an employee is convicted of a criminal offence, the Employer shall not assume any liability.

Letter of Agreement #5 Domestic Violence

The Company agrees to recognize that employees sometimes face situations of violence or abuse in their personal lives that may affect their attendance or performance at work. For these reasons, the Company and the Union agree, when there is adequate verification from a recognized professional (ie. Medical doctor, registered counselor) an employee who is in an abusive or violent situation will not be subject to discipline if work performance or absence can be linked to the abusive or violent situation.

Letter of Agreement #6

Contrary to past practice, part-time employees who work on a regular weekly basis, as described in Article 2.6.1 (b) 3, cannot declare themselves unavailable for work assignments. Part-Time employees shall book vacation in accordance with Article 21.4

Letter of Agreement # 7

Whereas there is no mechanism in the Collective Agreement for administering overtime with Broadcast Technicians (the “employees”) with regard to work performed by the employees while on standby and while outside of the workplace ;

Whereas the employees have to perform work, from time to time, when on standby outside of the workplace;

Therefore the Union and the Company agree as follows:

1. CTV London Broadcast Technicians assigned to standby during their off hours shall be compensated at a rate of seventeen dollars ($17.00) for each 8 hour tour or portion thereof or fifty-one dollars ($51.00) per calendar day on a scheduled day off.
2. When CTV London or Windsor Broadcast Technicians log in to the Company network and answers work-related email and or work-related phone calls to perform work, as defined in paragraph 3 below, while on standby outside of the workplace, a minimum of 1 hour of overtime shall be applied, with quarter (1/4) hour increments.

3. To clarify, the definition of “work” for the purposes of this Article, CTV London or Windsor Broadcast Technicians simply answering the telephone or checking work email is not sufficient to constitute work. To be considered to be performing “work”, the employees must be actively participating in the solution of a critical and/or time sensitive business issue over the phone or email.
