MEMORANDUM OF AGREEMENT

Made May 23, 2007 between The Brantford Expositor, a Division of Osprey Media LP, hereinafter known as the Employer and Communications, Energy and Paperworkers Union of Canada Local 87-M, Southern Ontario Newsmedia Guild, hereinafter known as the Union, for itself and on behalf of the employees of the Employer described in Article 1.

ARTICLE 1 - RECOGNITION AND COVERAGE

1.01 The Employer recognizes the Union as the exclusive bargaining agent for all employees in its Editorial Department, save and except Managing Editor, Editor, City Editor, Night News Editor, and all persons above these ranks; part-time employees working fifteen (15) hours or less per week; all persons employed on a temporary basis for not more than six (6) months, provided that such temporary basis shall be deemed permanent after six (6) months, or if that such temporary basis shall be deemed permanent after six (6) months, or if rehired within four (4) months of termination of their temporary employment (unless otherwise agreed by the Union and the Employer) and shall be credited with their temporary service.

Notwithstanding the above, a temporary employee may also be used to replace an employee on maternity or parental leave for the duration of the leave, without being covered by this collective agreement.

ARTICLE II - MANAGEMENT RIGHTS

2.01 The Union acknowledges that it is the exclusive function of the Employer to:

(a) Maintain order, discipline and efficiency.

(b) Hire, discharge, classify, direct, transfer, lay off, promote and discipline for cause subject to the grievance and other rights as herein provided by this Agreement.

(c) Make and alter from time to time rules and regulations to be observed by the employees, provided that they are not inconsistent with the provisions of this Agreement; and generally to manage the enterprise in which the Employer is engaged, and to determine the methods and equipment to be used.

ARTICLE II (A) - PERSONNEL FILE

2A.01 An employee shall have the right to review personnel, performance and any other files related to the employee which are kept by the Employer.

Upon request, employees shall be provided with copies of material they have the right to review under the above paragraph.

Employees shall have the right to respond in writing to the contents of the Employer's files. Such written responses shall be entered into the Employer's files.

Derogatory material shall be brought to the attention of an employee before being entered into the Employer's records.

Copies of formal discipline shall be removed from the employee's personnel file after thirty-six (36) months from date of issue, provided that there has been no discipline issued during the thirty-six (36) month period.

2A.02 When the conduct or efficiency of an employee reaches the stage where a written expression of dissatisfaction is necessary, the Employer shall so advise the Union and the employee concerned. Such notice shall be in writing and the employee shall be furnished with pertinent details of any such complaint. If this procedure is not followed, such expression of dissatisfaction shall not become part of the employee's record and shall not be used against the employee at any time. Any replies to such notices shall also become part of the employee's record.

ARTICLE III - HIRING

3.01 The Employer shall post on the main bulletin board and on the bulletin boards in each of the departments where employees are represented by the Union, for a period of at least seven (7) working days, notice of openings for employment within the bargaining unit. The notice shall indicate the job classification and general duties of the position. A copy of such notice shall be forwarded to the Union. The Employer agrees to consider candidates recommended by the Union.

3.02 The Employer shall continue its policy of promotion from within, whenever suitable candidates are available. Where two or more applicants for a bargaining unit position meet the criteria for the job and have relatively equal skill and ability the employee with the most seniority will be awarded the job.

ARTICLE IV - GRIEVANCE PROCEDURE

4.01 The Union shall designate a committee of its own choice but not comprising more than two (2) employees [excluding the grievor] to take up with the Employer or his authorized agent or agents any grievance arising under the provisions of this Agreement.

4.02 Definitions

"Grievance" means any difference between the parties bound by the collective agreement arising from the interpretation, application, administration or alleged violation of this Agreement, including any question as to whether a matter is arbitrable.

"Days" means calendar days, excluding Saturdays, Sundays and Statutory Holidays.

4.03 Step 1: Grievances shall be submitted first to the departmental supervisor, who shall be given an opportunity to adjust any grievances within ten (10) days after it has been initiated with him/her. A matter need not be accepted as a grievance if submitted more than fifteen (15) days after the occurrence of the circumstances giving rise to it.

Step 2: If there is no settlement of the grievance at the departmental level, the matter may be submitted to the Publisher or his/her authorized representative within fifteen (15) days after receiving the supervisor's decision. The Publisher shall reply to the grievance within ten (10) days after it has been initiated with him/her.

4.04 Failing settlement under the foregoing procedure, any grievance may be submitted to arbitration as hereinafter provided.

If no written request for arbitration is received within twenty (20) days after the decision of the Publisher is received, it shall be deemed to have been settled.

4.05 Grievance procedure shall be conducted on Employer time but in a manner which will not unduly disrupt the operations of the Employer.

4.06 Any differences arising directly between the Employer and the Union may be submitted in writing by either party at Step 2 of the above procedure and the time limits provided under the applicable provisions of the grievance procedure shall appropriately apply to both parties.

4.07 It is understood that, if necessary, the time limits contained herein may be extended by mutual consent to assist in reaching a settlement.

4.08 All agreements reached under the grievance procedure between representatives of the Employer and the Union will be final and binding upon the Employer, the Union and the employee or employees concerned.

4.09 This Article shall not preclude an employee from processing a grievance directly with his/her departmental supervisor, but any settlement reached thereby shall not violate provisions of this Agreement. The Union shall forthwith be advised in writing of all such settlements, copy to the Union's Toronto office. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Union reserves the right to take up any such grievance at any stage of the grievance procedure.

4.10 Grievances shall be submitted in writing in advance of any meeting if requested by either party.

ARTICLE V - ARBITRATION

5.01 When either party requests that any matter be submitted to arbitration as hereinafter provided, it shall make such request in writing addressed to the other party to this Agreement. Grievances shall be submitted to a single arbitrator, unless one of the parties requests in writing that it be heard by an arbitration board of three members, in which case the other party shall comply. A request for an arbitration board shall be made no later than ten (10) days after the original request for arbitration.

5.02 Single Arbitrator

The parties shall attempt to agree on an arbitrator. If the parties cannot agree, the arbitrator shall be appointed by the Ontario Minister of Labour.

Arbitration Board

The party requesting an arbitration board shall name its appointee to the arbitration board in its written request for an arbitration board. The other party shall advise the first party of the name of its appointee within five (5) days of receipt of the request. The two appointees shall, within five (5) days of the appointment of the second of them, appoint a third person who shall be the Chairperson. If the two (2) appointees fail to agree upon a Chairperson within that time limit, the appointment shall be made by the Ontario Minister of Labour upon the request of either party.

5.03 No person may be appointed as an arbitrator who has been involved in an attempt to negotiate or settle the grievance.

5.04 No matter may be submitted to arbitration which has not been properly carried through the required steps of the grievance procedure.

5.05 The single arbitrator or arbitration board shall not be authorized to make any decision inconsistent with the provisions of this Agreement, nor to alter, modify or amend any part of this Agreement.

5.06 The arbitration proceedings will be expedited by the parties hereto, and the decisions of the single arbitrator, or the majority in the case of an arbitration board, will be final and binding upon the parties hereto and the employee or employees concerned.

5.07 Each of the parties hereto will bear the expenses of the appointee representing it, and the parties will jointly bear the expenses of the single arbitrator or Chairperson of the arbitration board and other jointly incurred expenses of the arbitration board, except that no party shall be obligated to pay any part of the cost of a stenographic transcript without express consent.

5.08 Where a time limit is established in this Article, such time limit shall be deemed to be exclusive of Saturdays, Sundays and Statutory Holidays. It is understood that, if necessary, these time limits may be extended by mutual consent to assist in reaching an amicable settlement.

ARTICLE VI - SECURITY

6.01(a) There shall be no discipline or discharge except for just cause.

In the event that an employee is disciplined, other than verbal warnings or reprimands, the employee shall be notified in writing as soon as possible and a copy shall be sent to the Union at the same time.

6.01(b) The Employer may dismiss a probationary employee (less than three (3) months service) for any reason, provided such dismissal is not otherwise arbitrary, discriminatory or in bad faith.

6.02 A claim by an employee that he or she has been disciplined or discharged in violation of this Agreement shall be treated as a grievance if a written statement of such grievance is lodged with the Publisher or his/her representative within ten (10) working days after the employee is disciplined or ceases to work for the Employer. Step 1 of the grievance procedure will be omitted in any such cases.

6.03 There shall be no dismissals as a result of putting this Agreement into effect.

6.04 Every person has a right to equal treatment with respect to employment without discrimination because of age, sex, race, colour, ancestry, place of origin, ethnic origin, citizenship, creed, marital status, family status, sexual orientation, handicap, or record of offenses, as defined and interpreted under the Ontario Human Rights Code, nor because of political beliefs or lawful Union activity. The Employer and the Union recognize the right of all employees to work in an environment free from sexual and other types of harassment.

6.05 Not less than two (2) weeks' notice shall be given to an employee and to the Union upon being released from employment by the Employer, except in the case of dismissal for gross misconduct, in which case no notice need be given.

6.06 Whenever the Employer decides that it is necessary to reduce staff, employees will be laid off within each classification in each department on the basis of reverse order of their total length of service with the Employer since last hired. An employee in a classification to be reduced may elect to transfer within the employee's department to a lower classification or another classification in the same wage group provided that he is qualified for the work required, and provided that his total service with the Employer exceeds that of another employee in the other classification who will then become the employee to be laid off.

For this purpose the departments are Editorial, Reader Sales and Service and Advertising.

Before any such action is taken, the Employer shall notify the Union in writing at least 30 days in advance of any lay-off to reduce the force specifying the number of employees to be affected and their classifications and the reason why the Employer finds it necessary.

There shall be no lay-off within 30 days after the notice has been given. During those 30 days, the Employer shall accept voluntary resignation from employees in classifications as specified. For each voluntary resignation the number to be laid off in that classification will be reduced by one (1). Those accepting voluntary resignation shall be entitled to severance pay as provided in Article VI-A.

Employees who completed three (3) months' service at the date of lay-off will be recalled to work in the reverse order from that in which they had been laid off, provided that they are qualified for the work required, and provided further that such recall takes place within 12 months of the date of lay-off for employees with less than 5 years of service and 24 months for employees with more than five years of service.

Upon being so recalled, an employee shall within seven (7) days notify the Employer in writing of his intention to return to work and within an additional seven (7) days report for work. The Employer agrees to advise an employee of such recall in writing via registered mail to his last known address, with a copy of the notice to the Union, copy to the Union's Toronto Office.

6.07 Any employee who refuses a position in the classification from which s/he was laid off automatically terminates his/her claim to further employment by the Employer, except in the case of a temporary position or a position requiring a significantly different number of hours of work than the position the employee worked in prior to his layoff.

6.08 No employee who has completed his/her probationary period within three (3) months after the date of signing this Agreement shall be laid off as a result of the introduction of new or modified equipment or processes, or when a new system of production is introduced. The Employer will provide retraining in these circumstances and such retraining will be at the time and expense of the Employer.

The Employer will give the Union 30 days notice of the installation of new or modified equipment or processes or when a new system of production is introduced, when such introduction would:

- i) result in the reduction of staff (other than employees probationary at the time the notice was given), or
- ii) involve the retraining of an employee, or
- iii) create a new job classification.

There will be no reduction in salary for those dislocated by the introduction of new or modified equipment or processes. An employee so dislocated will also receive any future wage increases accruing to the classification from which he was dislocated, provided the employee is willing to undertake such training as the Employer requires and provides.

When a new system of production is introduced, Union members actively at work who do not wish to retrain or are unable to retrain will be able to sever their employment with The Expositor, such severance to be accompanied by payment in accordance with the terms set out in Article VI-A of this Agreement. The severance option may be exercised by the employee when either the employee need not be replaced; or an employee is approached for retraining and does not wish to retrain; or an employee becomes unable to retrain or fails to complete his/her retraining to a normal level of competence; or an employee becomes redundant.

The Employer will notify the Union of any new job classifications that are proposed to be created as a result of the introduction of new or modified equipment or processes, or when a new system of production is introduced, and will negotiate the appropriate rate for any such new classifications within 30 days. If agreement on rates is not reached within 30 days the matter will be subject to the normal grievance procedure. The 30 day limit may be extended by mutual consent of the Employer and the Union.

6.09 The Employer shall not establish unreasonable standards of speed or accuracy for such new or modified equipment or processes, or when a new system of production is introduced.

6.10 The Union reserves to its members the right to refuse to deal with material received from or destined to an unfair Employer, or from or for an office, shop or factory where a legal strike or lockout is in effect and has been sanctioned by the Union. The Union will give the Employer twelve (12) hours notice of its intention of invoking the struck work clause of this Agreement.

6.11 An employee shall lose all seniority rights and employment in the event that:

- (a) the employee quits
- (b) the employee is discharged for just cause; and such discharge is not reversed through the grievance or arbitration procedure
- (c) the employee has been laid off for a period exceeding the applicable recall period
- (d) the employee fails to report for work within fourteen (14) days after notification of recall to work following layoff
- (e) the employee fails to report for work after an authorized leave of absence without providing a reasonable explanation satisfactory to the employer
- (f) the employee has been absent without permission or proper notification for three working days and has not provided a reasonable explanation satisfactory to the employer
- (g) the employee retires

ARTICLE VI-A - SEVERANCE PAY

Upon termination of employment, except for retirement, resignation, death, or in the case of consistent negligence in the performing of assigned duties, or gross misconduct, or self-provoked dismissal for the purpose of collecting severance pay, or termination of employment for failure to maintain membership in the Union in good standing, an employee shall receive severance pay at the rate of one (1) week's salary for each six (6) months of service with the Employer, or major fraction thereof, to a maximum of thirty-eight (38) weeks' salary.

ARTICLE VII - HOURS OF WORK AND OVERTIME

7.01 The standard work week shall be five (5) days of seven and one-half (7 1/2) hours falling within eight and one-half (8 1/2) hours and within eight (8) hours for desk staff. Shorter lunch period for desk staff may be taken only when authorized by the Employer.

7.02 (a) The term Night Desk Staff refers to employees whose scheduled shifts contain the majority of the shifts hours between 6:00 p.m. and 6:00 a.m.

7.03 Staff members on out-of-town assignments shall be compensated for overtime in accordance with the provisions of 7.05.

7.04 Notwithstanding the provisions of 7.01, each employee in the Editorial Department may be required to work twenty (20) split shifts during each year of this Agreement. Overtime on such shifts shall be payable only after seven and one-half (7 1/2) working hours.

7.05 (a) The Employer shall compensate for all authorized overtime work at the rate of time and one half in cash, except that overtime in excess of four (4) hours on any one (1) day (excluding sixth or seventh shifts) shall be compensated for by the Employer at the rate of double time in cash. 7.06 Work schedules shall be posted not later than 5:00 p.m. on the Wednesday preceding the Sunday-to-Saturday week for which they apply, except that scheduled starting times may be changed by up to three (3) hours if notice of the change is given by noon of the previous day. A schedule showing days off only shall be posted one (1) week prior to the posting of the work schedule. Shifts may be split by notice of the change by 1:00 p.m. of the previous day. With the consent of the Employer and the Union, employees will be allowed to change a day off after the schedule has been posted, for personal or professional reasons such as the cancellation of a news event.

7.07 An employee required to work on his day off shall be paid at the rate of time and one-half for all time worked, with a minimum of four (4) hours at the overtime rate.

ARTICLE VIII - HOLIDAYS

8.01 The Employer agrees to observe the following holidays without loss of regular pay to the employees, provided they occur or are officially observed on a regular scheduled working day of the employee. New Year's Day, Good Friday, Victoria Day, Canada Day, August Civic Holiday, Labour Day, Thanksgiving Day, Christmas Day and Boxing Day (or days celebrated as such), plus any other statutory holiday proclaimed by the Government of Ontario.

8.02 In order to qualify for holiday pay, the employee must work the regular working day both immediately preceding and immediately following the holiday concerned, except where the employee is receiving Workmen's Compensation or is absent due to certified illness (in which case the employee will not receive more than his regular day's pay as between Workmen's Compensation or Sick Benefit and the application of this article) and any other reason satisfactory to the Employer.

8.03 (a) In a week which includes a statutory holiday, employees will receive five (5) days pay for four (4) days work.

(b) If the holiday falls on an employee's day off they shall be given a day off with pay within sixty (60) days, or a day's pay in lieu.

(c) An employee working on a statutory holiday shall be paid time and one-half (1 ½x) for all hours worked, in addition to the regular pay for the statutory holiday. It is understood this is full payment for the holiday, and the employee is not entitled to a day in lieu.

(d) For Night Desk Staff, an employee working on a statutory holiday shall be paid double the regular rate for the hours worked on the statutory holiday, except for Christmas Day. For Christmas Day, employees will be paid triple time for all hours worked on that day.

(e) An employee shall receive compensation for statutory holiday work in either cash or equivalent time off, at the employee's option. Days off are to be taken at a time mutually agreed between the employee and the Employer.

(f) Overtime worked on a statutory holiday shall be paid at double time (2x) for all overtime hours worked.

8.04 Each employee shall receive an accumulated total of fifteen (15) hours per year with pay, to be taken at a mutually agreeable time or times. It is agreed such fifteen (15) accumulated hours period may be split. New employees with less than one (1) year's service will be given time off on the basis of four (4) hours for each three (3) months' service, with the total time off not to exceed fifteen (15) hours per year. Employees terminating during the year will be given time off, or payment thereof, on the same pro-rated basis. These hours are to be taken during the calendar year to which they apply.

8.05 Except for Night Desk Staff, work on a statutory holiday shall be offered to employees within each classification in rotation on the basis of highest seniority. Should no one wish to work the statutory holiday, the Employer shall assign the holiday work in rotation on the basis of lowest seniority.

ARTICLE IX - VACATIONS

9.01 Employees shall receive an annual vacation with pay on the following basis:

Length of continuous service as of December 31st:

one (1) year	two (2) weeks
three (3) years	three (3) weeks
eight (8) years	four (4) weeks
fourteen (14) years	five (5) weeks
twenty-five (25) Years	six (6) weeks

Employees with less than one (1) year of continuous service shall receive one (1) day of vacation with pay per month of service up to a maximum of ten (10) days (the month of hiring shall be considered a month of service if the employee was hired on or before the fifteenth day).

9.02 Vacation schedules shall be arranged and posted by March 31 in each year. In the event of a conflict over vacation dates, seniority shall govern. The Employer recognizes a vacation period of May 15 to September 30, and, if possible, all one (1) or two (2) week vacations will be granted within this period. Employees shall provide the Employer with preferred vacation dates by March 20 in each year. Employees who fail to select vacation dates by March 20 may lose the privilege of selection to which their seniority entitles them. Vacations are to be taken during the calendar year in which the employee qualifies for them, except as permitted by mutual consent of the Employer, the employee, and the Union. The third, fourth, fifth and sixth weeks of vacation are to be taken so as not to interfere in any way with the regular vacation period, and with the mutual consent of all concerned. An employee whose service will qualify him for an increased vacation in any calendar year shall receive the additional vacation in the calendar year. Entitlement to the full vacation payment is conditional on employment continuing to the end of the year. If employment is ended before the end of the year, vacation payment will be adjusted accordingly with the value of any unearned vacation already taken being deducted. Accrued vacation pay is based on straight time earnings from January 1st of each calendar year. In case of death, the employee's estate shall receive the accrued vacation pay.

9.03 An employee whose vacation period includes a holiday, (as covered in article 8.01), shall receive an additional day on a date mutually agreed on by such employee and the Employer. If requested by the employee, the Employer will add such day or days to the employee's vacation period, whenever possible and feasible.

9.04 Vacation pay shall be on the basis of the employee's regular straight-time salary in the category in which the employee normally works.

9.05 When the employee has unpaid absence in excess of 30 days in any calendar year, vacation pay for each week of vacation shall be calculated on the basis of two per cent (2%) of the employee's straight time earnings. Adjustments in such cases may be made in the vacation pay. Absence due to sickness for a period up to twenty-six (26) weeks in any calendar year will not be considered unpaid absence. Authorized absence due to family emergencies, or educational leave, will not be considered unpaid absence for the purpose of this section.

ARTICLE X - SICK LEAVE

10.01 The Employer agrees to pay 65% of the costs of the Expositor Employees' Mutual Benefit Society.

10.02 The Employer agrees in respect of employees who have completed three (3) months service to make up the difference between the benefit payments received by him or her from the Employees' Mutual Benefit Society and the employee's regular straight time net salary, for a maximum of thirteen (13) weeks in any one (1) calendar year. For each additional two (2) months of service the employee will qualify for one (1) additional week of benefit payments from the Employer, up to a maximum benefit period of twenty-six (26) weeks related to a continuing illness. A continuous absence for the same illness shall be limited to twenty-six (26) weeks total and not limited to one (1) calendar year.

The Employer reserves the right, after consultation with officers of the Union, to have a doctor of the Employer's choice assess the employee's condition and provide a written report verifying the continuing disability, as a condition of the employee receiving the Employer's portion beyond the initial thirteen (13) week period of benefit. In no event shall an employee receive in the aggregate from the Mutual Benefit Society and under this provision more than he would have received had he been at work.

If the Employer brings forward evidence of abuse of the sick benefit provision the Union agrees to meet with the Employer and to deal fairly with such abuse.

10.03 The Employer's long-term disability plan shall continue during the life of this agreement.

ARTICLE XI - LEAVES OF ABSENCE

11.01 Leave of absence without pay may be granted at the discretion of the Employer provided that the Employer shall give due consideration to the reason for the requested absence and whether the requested absence would unreasonably interfere with the efficient operation of the business. The employee shall not engage in other employment during such leave of absence without the consent of the Employer with the exception of educational or labour movement work. A refusal to grant a requested leave of absence shall be subject to appeal under the grievance procedure as to whether the discretion was exercised in the manner required.

11.02 An employee who has left or leaves the employment of the Employer to enter any kind of military service in time of war in which Canada is engaged, or under enforced military service, shall if qualified on release from such service resume his position or a comparable one, with a salary not less than that prevailing on his return for his experience rating on leaving. If the employee is unable to resume his former employment because of disability because of military service, the Employer will make all reasonable efforts to give him suitable other employment and shall consult with the Union thereon.

11.03 Leaves of absence, upon request, without pay, shall be granted to delegates to conventions of the Union to no more than two (2) employees at any one time on three (3) weeks notice, and for not more than a total of four (4) weeks in any one (1) year. Leaves of absence, upon request, without pay, for purpose of participating in other meetings relating to the business of the Union, for not more than a total of two (2) weeks in any one (1) year, will be granted, provided such absence would not unreasonably interfere with the efficient operation of the Employer's business. If such leaves interfere with the vacation schedule in the number of employees absent, employees on leave on Union business shall have priority over employees with vacation seniority.

11.04 Bereavement Leave: In the event of a death in the immediate family of an employee, the employee will be granted a leave of absence of three (3) consecutive days, including the day of the funeral, and the employee will be paid at his regular straight time hourly rate for the number of hours he would otherwise have worked on such days of absence. For the purpose of this provision, immediate family shall be limited to the employee's spouse, common-law spouse, mother, father, son, daughter, brother, sister, mother-in-law, father-in-law.

In the event of the death of the employee's brother-in-law, sister-in-law, daughter-in-law, son-in-law, grandparent, grandparent-in-law, grandchild or any relative residing in the employee's home, or with whom the employee resides, the employee will be granted a leave of absence for the day of the funeral and will be paid at his regular straight-time hourly rate for the number of hours he would otherwise have worked on that day.

At the discretion of the Employer, bereavement leave may be granted in special circumstances not covered by this Agreement or additional bereavement leave of one (1) or two (2) days may be granted to employees who would otherwise be entitled to one (1) day of bereavement leave.

11.05 An employee's duties or working conditions will not be altered without her consent on account of pregnancy. Maternity leave of absence without pay of up to six (6) months in respect of the birth of an employee's child shall be granted upon request.

An employee on maternity leave will continue to participate in the benefit plans that she is enrolled in by continuing to pay her share of the premiums. An employee can earn pension plan service credits while on maternity leave by continuing to make monthly contributions based on her regular rate of pay. An employee's vacation entitlement shall not be reduced as a result of being on maternity leave.

Male employees shall be allowed one (1) working day off without loss of pay on either the day of birth of their child or the day their child arrives home.

11.06 Such leaves of absence shall not constitute breaks in continuity of service.

11.07 Jury Duty: The Employer will pay an employee who is required for jury service, or is subpoenaed as a witness, for each day of service on their regular working days, the difference between their regular straight-time hourly rate for the number of hours s/he normally works on their regular shift and the payment received for jury service. The employee will present proof of jury service and the amount of jury pay. When an employee is excused from jury service for one-half (1/2) day or more, they must return to work and complete their regular shift. 12.02 Classification and experience rating of new employees shall be established by mutual agreement between the Employer and the Union. In the application of the foregoing schedules of minimums, experience shall include employment in comparable work. In the application of this clause covering experience rating of new employees, it is understood that if requested, experience rating of new employees will be established prior to hiring. It is also understood that experience greater than that required for the position open need not be recognized except to the maximum of the classification to which the position applies.

In the application of this clause covering experience rating of new employees it is understood that the Employer will supply the Union with the rate, classification, experience rating and reason for the experience rating for new employees.

12.03 In the event that the Employer creates a new bargaining unit job classification, the Union and the Employer agree to negotiate the minimum salaries for the new job classification. Where agreement cannot be reached, the issue of the minimum salaries shall be referred to the grievance and arbitration procedure for resolution.

12.04 Any employee who works a scheduled shift whose major part falls between 6:00 p.m. and 6:00 a.m. or any employee on a split shift shall receive a differential of $15.72 for such shift in addition to his/her regular salary. Any employee who works a scheduled shift which begins between midnight and 6:00 a.m. shall receive a differential of $15.72 in addition to his/her regular salary. Only one (1) such differential shall be paid in respect of any one (1) shift.

12.05 Any employee who substitutes in any higher paid job within the bargaining unit for up to four (4) hours on any shift shall be paid half the difference between his regular rate for a full shift and that of the employee being replaced, and thereafter shall be paid at the rate of the employee being replaced with a minimum of a full shift's pay. Any employee who substitutes in a position outside the bargaining unit for one shift or more in any week shall be paid at the top rate of Group 1, plus five per cent (5%). Night Desk Staff who substitute for the Night News Editor shall receive this premium for all such hours worked

12.06 No employee shall be scheduled to work beyond 6:00 p.m. on the shift prior to the beginning of his/her vacation period, (beyond 6:00 a.m. for Night Desk Staff and the Night Reporter), or a statutory holiday, except in case of emergency assignment. An emergency assignment includes work required because of the unscheduled absence of other employees, and news events occurring after the schedule is posted. It is understood that an employee may be required to work beyond 6:00 p.m. on the shift prior to his/her weekly day off up to 18 times per calendar year.

12.07 There shall be no reduction in salaries except by mutual agreement. This does not apply to merit pay.

ARTICLE XIII - EXPENSES AND EQUIPMENT

13.01 The Employer agrees to pay all authorized expenses of any employee incurred in the discharge of his duties. This includes meals when an employee works beyond two (2) hours on an overtime basis and meals on an out-of-town assignment. Such claims must be accompanied by receipts.

13.02 As a condition of employment, the Employer will require all employees whose normal duties include work outside the office to supply a reliable vehicle to be used in the discharge of the employees' duties.

Employees who are required to use a personal vehicle for Employer business must satisfy the Employer that they have adequate insurance for use of the automobile for business purposes (minimum $1,000,000 Public Liability and Property Damage coverage required). The Employer agrees to pay the cost of the difference between the private use and business use insurance coverage, to a maximum of $210.00 per year ($220.00 per year effective January 1, 2005).

When an employee renews his insurance he shall provide the Employer with written proof of coverage and cost, at which time he will be reimbursed up to the entitled maximum in a lump sum payment. At the beginning of each calendar year the Employer and the Union will assess quotations from the employees' insurance companies (and other companies if needed to provide five (5) quotations) to establish whether an adjustment in this payment is required. This would be based on an average of the quotations.

The Employer shall review the situation with the Union annually to determine whether business insurance was justified in every instance.

13.03 The Employer requires that Photographers wear CSA-approved safety boots while on the job on certain assignments. The Employer agrees to provide such employees with a safety boot allowance of $75.00 each twenty-four (24) months, upon presentation of receipts.

ARTICLE XIV - EMPLOYEE BENEFITS

14.01 The Employer agrees to pay the full cost of basic group life insurance for present subscribers who are on the active payroll and new employees on the active payroll after three (3) months' service in the amount of one (1) times annual salary rounded up to the nearest thousand dollars.

It is understood that the amount of insurance for all subscribers shall be $6,000 on and after the date on which the employee retires, or the first day of the insurance year which is nearest the date on which such employee attains his 70th birthday, whichever date shall be earlier. This provision applies to members who were in the Extended Group Life Insurance Plan, $3,350 for all other employees who were not members of the Extended Group Life Insurance Plan.

14.02 The Employer agrees to pay the full premium for a "no deductible" Manulife Financial Extended Health Benefit Plan which shall include semi-private hospitalization during the life of this Agreement. The Employer agrees to pay 60% of the premium for the dental plan, which shall provide 100% co-insurance.

14.03 In respect to the coverage provided under 14.02 an employee shall have the right to choose the Employer coverage for the spouse and family. An employee shall not be entitled to coverage which the employee is receiving elsewhere.

14.04 Employees shall be covered by the Manulife Financial Vision Care Plan, providing a maximum of $220.00 for frames and lenses, or $220.00 for contact lenses, every two (2) years for each member of the family. (Increasing to a maximum of $240.00 for frames and lenses or $240.00 for contract lenses every two years, effective January 1, 2009). Premiums shall be paid by the Employer.

ARTICLE XV - HEALTH AND SAFETY

15.01 The Employer recognizes the need for breaks away from VDTs and will allow for them. It is expected that employees will exercise responsible judgment in taking breaks, as is the present practice.

15.02 The Employer shall make every reasonable effort to supply employees with adjustable chairs, desks and tables for use with VDTs.

15.03 A pregnant employee shall have the right to transfer to non-VDT work during the term of her pregnancy providing there is a staff vacancy at the time, and she is qualified to fill the position, and will continue to receive the regular rate of pay in her classification. If no alternate work exists for which the employee is suitable, she shall be given the option of maternity leave. During the term of such leave the Employer and the employee will continue to pay their normal premiums for all benefit plans. Accumulation of vacation credits shall continue during the period of leave.

15.04 Every reasonable effort shall be made to maintain proper ventilation and a proper temperature in the work place.

15.05 When the Employer conducts an official investigation following a workplace accident, a union representative on the joint Health and Safety committee shall be invited to attend.

ARTICLE XVI - MISCELLANEOUS

No employee shall be required by the Employer to give custody of or disclose any knowledge, information, notes, records, documents, films, photographs or tapes or the sources thereof to any party other than the Employer. The Employer agrees that the foregoing shall not be released to any other party without discussing the matter with the employee, providing the employee is available.

The Employer assumes full responsibility for any decision to supply information or material to a third party, and will assume any legal fees and expenses resulting from this decision.

Employees will not be requested to write or edit copy paid for by advertisers as a part of their work. Any such work will be performed on a voluntary basis and paid for at freelance rates.

The editor will consider and respond to concerns raised on behalf of editorial employees by Union representatives relating to professional matters, such as content related to advertising or of a promotional nature.

16.03 Outside Activities:

Employees of the Employer shall be free to engage in any activities outside of working hours, provided such activities do not consist of service performed for publications in direct competition with the Employer, and provided further that without permission no employee shall exploit his connection with the Employer in the course of such activities; and provided that any outside activities do not impair due service to the Employer, or result in any conflict of interest with the Employer.

16.04 Transfers:

(a) An employee of the Employer shall not be transferred to another city, to another Osprey Media LP newspaper or to any other division of Osprey Media LP without his consent. If he accepts such a transfer, all transportation and other moving expenses will be paid by the Employer. If he declines, he shall not be penalized nor precluded from further transfer opportunities.

(b) No employee shall be transferred except for just cause to another position, job classification, district or territory in his department, or to a position, job classification, district or territory in another department, without the employee's consent, providing such consent is not unreasonably withheld. Re: Transfers into the Bargaining Unit

This will confirm our understanding in connection with the transfer of persons employed by the Employer into the bargaining unit to perform the work done by members of the bargaining unit.

If, before November 30, 2006, it is necessary to reduce staff pursuant to Section 6.06 of the Collective Agreement, no employee who as of November 13, 1995, has three (3) years or more of service with the Employer and is in the bargaining unit on that date, will be laid off as long as an employee who was transferred into the bargaining unit on or after November 13, 1995, regardless of length of service with the Employer, remains in the bargaining unit.

This is subject to the further understanding that no employee will be protected from layoff pursuant to this letter if the employee does not possess the qualifications, knowledge, training and ability to perform the work required by the Employer.

Dear Sirs:

Re: Part-time Seniority

In the event of a layoff, the seniority for a bargaining unit part-time employee hired after June 18, 1998, shall be converted to full-time equivalent seniority by adding together all the straight-time hours worked by the part-time employee and dividing by seven and one-half (7.5) to determine the number of normal working shifts, which will determine the regular full-time equivalence of such part-time hours, assuming five (5) normal working shifts per week.

Having calculated the full-time equivalence, the employee shall be awarded, accordingly a new seniority date. (For example, a part-time employee who worked one (1) full shift each week for five (5) years would be awarded the equivalent of one (1) year of regular full-time seniority and his or her seniority date would be amended to reflect this full-time equivalence.)

Seniority for bargaining unit part-time employees on the payroll on June 18, 1998 shall continue to be based on total length of service with the Employer since last hired.
