- 1.01 The Union is recognized as the exclusive bargaining agent for all employees of the Employer in its editorial department in the City of Hamilton (formerly the Regional Municipality of Hamilton-Wentworth) and the town of Caledonia, save and except the Managing Editor, and persons above the rank of Managing Editor.

All matters concerning the operations of the Employer not specifically dealt with herein shall be reserved to the Employer and be its exclusive responsibility. The Employer agrees they shall exercise these rights in a manner that is consistent with this Collective Agreement.

ARTICLE 2 - RELATIONSHIP AND UNION REPRESENTATION

- 2.01 It is a condition of employment of any employee, as of the date of the signing of this agreement, who is a member of the Union or who after becomes a member of the Union, that he or she remains a member for the duration of the agreement.

Each new employee (within three (3) months after his or her date of employment) shall become a member of the Union.

The Union agrees that it will retain in membership any employee subject to the constitution of Unifor and the bylaws of Local 87-M.

Deductions shall be made from each pay and remitted to the Union by the fifteenth day of the following month. When remitting dues, the Employer shall include the names of the employees from whose pay deductions have been made and the amount of the deduction. The Union will give the Employer one month's notice of any changes in the amount of Union dues to be deducted.

- 2.03 The Employer shall supply the Union once within 30 days of the signing of this agreement and within one month of hiring new employees with the following information in writing for each new employee:

- a) Name, address, telephone number, sex, date of birth and social insurance number.
- b) Date of hiring.
- c) Anticipated regular hours of work, if a part time employee.
- d) Classification.
- e) Experience rating and experience anniversary date.
- f) Remuneration arrangements.

- 2.04 The Employer shall notify the Union monthly in writing of:

- 2.06 Employees who are on the Union's bargaining committee shall not have their pay interrupted for any work day on which the Employer and the Union agree to meet for the purpose of bargaining a renewal to this agreement, or days spent in preparation for bargaining, if such preparation days are granted by the Employer. The Union shall reimburse the Employer for any wages which such an employee is entitled to for such day(s).
- 2.07 The Employer shall advise new employees that a collective agreement is in effect and of the conditions of employment with regard to Union membership and deduction of Union dues.

A Union steward shall be allowed 30 minutes during a new employee's first week of work, without loss of pay, to acquaint the new employee with the collective agreement and the Union.

ARTICLE 3 - GRIEVANCE AND ARBITRATION PROCEDURE

3.01 An employee, accompanied by his/her shop steward or Union representative if desired, shall within ten (10) days of the circumstances giving rise to a complaint, raise the matter orally to the employee's immediate manager. If the employee and the Union are not satisfied with the outcome of such discussions, the employee may have resort to the grievance procedure described in this section.

(i) Definition

"Grievance" means any difference between the parties bound by the Agreement concerning its interpretation, application, administration, or any alleged violation thereof.

For the purpose of this section, "Union representative" shall include any elected officer of the Union, or representative or steward recognized by the Union.

(ii) Grievance Procedure

Either party may initiate a grievance. If a grievance is not settled at any one stage of the grievance procedure, then the grieving party shall have the alternative either to abandon it or proceed to the next successive stage within the time limits set out in each stage. By mutual agreement between the Employer and the Union, and in the case of an Employer or Union grievance, the processing of any grievance may begin at the second stage. The successive stages of the grievance procedure are:

(a) First Stage

The employee, accompanied by his/her steward or Union representative, shall within twenty (20) days of the circumstances giving rise to the grievance, grieve the matter in writing to the employee's immediate manager. The grievance shall be answered in writing within ten (10) days of the receipt of the grievance.

(b) Second Stage

If the grievance is not resolved, then within ten (10) days of receipt of an answer at the first stage, the Union shall take up the grievance in writing with the Publisher (or his representative). The answer to the second stage grievance must be given in writing within ten (10) days of the receipt of the grievance at the second stage.

(c) Final Stage – Arbitration

If the two parties are unable to agree at the second stage, then within twenty (20) days of receipt of an answer at the second stage, the Union shall notify the Employer in writing of its intention to take the grievance to arbitration.

In general, it is intended that grievances which are not resolved at the second stage shall be submitted to a single arbitrator; however, either party may elect to submit a grievance to an Arbitration Board of three members, in which case the other party shall comply.

Single Arbitrator

In the event that a grievance is to be arbitrated by a single arbitrator, the parties to the Agreement shall attempt to agree on naming the Arbitrator as soon as the grieving party has submitted notice, in writing, of its decision to proceed to arbitration. If the parties cannot agree, the Arbitrator shall be appointed by the Ontario Ministry of Labour. The Arbitrator shall proceed as soon as practical to examine the grievance and render his/her judgement, and his/her decision shall be final and binding upon the parties and upon any employee affected by it.

Arbitration Board

If a grievance is to be arbitrated by an Arbitration Board of three members, the grieving party shall notify the other party in writing of its desire to submit the grievance to arbitration and the notice shall contain the name of the grieving party's appointee to the Arbitration Board. The recipient of the notice shall within five (5) days advise the other party of the name of its appointee to the Arbitration Board. The two appointees so selected, shall, within five (5) days of the appointment of the second of them, appoint a third person who shall be the Chairperson. If the two appointees fail to agree upon the Chairperson within the time limit, the appointment shall be made by the Ontario Ministry of Labour upon the request of either party. The Arbitration Board shall proceed as soon as practical to examine the grievance and render its judgement, and its decision shall be final and binding on the parties and upon any employee affected by it.

The decision of the majority shall be the decision of the Arbitration Board, but if there is no majority, the decision of the Chairperson shall govern. Each party shall pay the fees and expenses of appointee to a Board and one-half the fees and expenses of the chairperson, or single arbitrator. Expenses will include any disbursements incurred by the arbitrators during their proceedings.

(d) Time Limits

It is intended that grievances shall be processed as quickly as possible. Time limits are mandatory and not directory. If the grieving party does not appeal the grievance to the next successive stage within the specified time limit, the grievance shall be deemed to be abandoned and shall not thereafter be reinstated. If the responding party does not answer the grievance within the specified answer time limit for each stage, then the grievance shall automatically proceed to the next higher stage. Notwithstanding the above, the appeal and answer time limits as specified may be extended by mutual agreement in writing. ("Days" does not include Saturdays, Sundays, and Statutory holidays).

(e) Where practical, efforts to adjust grievances in the first and second stages shall be made during scheduled working hours.

(f) A grievance alleging discharge without just cause may be initiated at the Second Stage.

ARTICLE 4 - DISCIPLINE AND DISCHARGE

- 4.01 No employee, other than an employee who at the time of discharge has not completed the probationary period, shall be discharged or disciplined except for just cause.
- 4.02 The Employer shall, except in the case of oral warnings, inform an employee in writing of the reasons for any disciplinary action, as soon as possible, with a copy sent to the Union in the case of a discharge, suspension, or final warning.
- 4.03 An employee shall be entitled to a copy of any criticism, commendation, appraisal or rating of such employee's performance in his/her job that is placed in his/her file, and on an annual basis to read his/her personnel file. The employee shall be allowed to place in such a file a response to anything contained therein which such employee deems to be adverse.
- 4.04 Employees shall have the right to have a steward present at any disciplinary meeting which may result in a suspension or discharge. The Employer shall advise the employee of this right prior to the meeting. The Union agrees to provide the Employer with a list of stewards.
Where practical, without unreasonably delaying the meeting, employees may have a steward present at any disciplinary meeting which would result in a lesser form of discipline.
- 4.05 When a grievance has been filed concerning an employee, the employee or the Union (with the written consent of the individual concerned) may, upon request, read and be provided copies of material in the employee's personnel file.
- 4.06 Disciplinary warnings and/or reprimands which predate a disciplinary action by more than two (2) years shall not be adduced as evidence against an employee in any subsequent arbitration proceedings. Upon request by the employee, any such documents shall be removed from the employee's personnel file after two years from the date of issue.

ARTICLE 5 - PROMOTIONS, TRANSFERS AND TRAINING

- 5.01 Employees shall be given first opportunity to apply for vacancies within any Union bargaining unit. The Employer shall post on the designated bulletin board at each facility for a period of at least seven (7) working days notice of all openings for employment within any Union bargaining unit. A copy of such notice shall be forwarded to the Union.
- 5.02 Employees may submit standing applications in writing at any time. Employees may apply for any position, including a lateral transfer within their classification.
- 5.03 When filling such positions, the Employer shall consider qualifications, abilities, and seniority. When, in the opinion of the Employer, qualifications and abilities are relatively equal, seniority shall be the deciding factor.

Unsuccessful employee applicants shall be advised of the reasons that they were not granted the position, upon request.

- 5.04 An employee transferred or promoted shall be given a trial period of one month which may be extended by mutual agreement between the Employer and the employee. The Union will be notified of any such agreements.

During a trial period an employee may elect to return to his or her previous position without penalty or prejudice.

At the end of the trial period, the employee shall be either confirmed in the new position or returned to the old one without prejudice or penalty. If returned to his or her previous job, the employee will receive the salary for the previous job.

- 5.05 Whenever possible, members of the bargaining unit shall be afforded the opportunity to retrain in order of seniority. The Employer shall consider employee requests for the opportunity to be retrained during work hours or for financial assistance with the expenses of training. Under no circumstances shall the introduction of new processes or equipment be delayed by such training.
- 5.06 All time spent in trial periods after promotion or transfer will be considered continuous service.
- 5.07 Relocation of an employee's residence shall not be a condition of promotion or transfer. If an employee is transferred or promoted to a location in a different regional municipality and the Employer requests that the employee relocate his or her residence closer to the new work location and the employee chooses to so relocate, the Employer shall pay such relocation costs as were agreed upon with the employee prior to such promotion or transfer.
- 5.08 No employee shall be transferred to a different regional municipality without his or her consent.

- 5.09 An employee's written request for a transfer shall be acknowledged in writing and shall be considered by the Employer within fourteen (14) days of receipt.
- 5.10 The Employer encourages the improvement of employees' job skills and the acquisition of new skills by employees. When assistance in this respect is practicable, the Employer shall train the employees during working hours.
- 5.11 When the Employer transfers or promotes an employee to another job classification, he/she may request on-the-job training with respect to an element of the new job function with which he/she is not familiar. Such requests shall not be unreasonably denied.
- 5.12 Training on new equipment shall be provided to employees on the basis of seniority and first to those employees in the classification which will utilize such new equipment.
- 5.13 If temporary employees are required by the employer during the introduction of new technology and/or training on new equipment, their use shall not reduce scheduled hours of current employees.
- 5.14 The Union and the Employer shall establish a joint new technology committee that shall meet when new technology is being contemplated by the Employer. Such committee at that time shall discuss and recommend a training program to be used in the introduction of the new technology.

Such committee may meet from time to time to discuss issues that may arise following the introduction of the new technology.

It is understood and agreed that the above clauses in this Article 5 do not apply to employees who are assigned or reassigned to work within their classification. The above clauses in this Article 5 do apply to employees who are promoted, who are transferred from one job classification to another, or to vacancies as outlined below.

The Employer will notify the Union of the names of the employees affected. The Employer and the Union shall discuss how such layoffs may be avoided or minimized. Every reasonable effort shall be made to avoid such layoffs.

- (d) The employees affected may choose, in order of seniority, within thirty (30) days of notice, to bump employees with less seniority. - Employees who choose not to bump may elect to take severance pay.
- (e) Laid-off employees, or those who bumped into lower classifications, shall be placed on a recall list for eighteen (18) months in order of seniority and the Employer shall fill vacancies within each classification according to that list. Dear Mr. Newman,

RE: Generic Prescription Drugs

Please be advised by way of this letter that the Company will be implementing a Generic Prescription Drug first program in 2014.

Our current benefit plan includes a Simple Generic Substitution in which the brand name drug is cut back to the lowest priced equivalent. If the prescription states “no substitution”, the name brand drug will be provided.

Under the revision, when generic prescription drugs are available only the cost of the generic drug will be covered when “no substitution” is stipulated. The exception to this is when a generic drug is not available; name brand drugs will continue to be fully covered. Furthermore, when an employee has an allergic reaction to the substitution, name brand drugs will also be covered.

If the employee chooses the name brand drug, they will be prescribed the drug and pay the difference in cost between the generic drug and the name brand drug.

Yours truly,

Jamie Poehlman

Dear Mr. Newman,

Re: Family Emergency Leave

This letter will confirm the understanding reached by the parties during collective bargaining concerning the protocol that the Company will follow when considering an employee's request for a leave of absence due to a family emergency.

Application & Conditions

The entitlement to a Family Emergency Leave is restricted to requests regarding the care of family members listed in this contract under Bereavement Leave (spouse, children, father or mother, brother, sister, father-in-law, mother-in-law, grandmother, grandfather, grandchild, brother-in-law, or sister-in-law).

A family emergency leave must be a minimum of four (4) weeks and shall be no more than eight (8) weeks. An employee may make a special request for an extension of up to four (4) weeks.

An employee's request for an emergency leave will be granted at the Company's discretion and subject to the Company's operational needs. Limits may be placed, at the Company's discretion, on the number of employees in any one department able to take a family emergency leave during any period of time.

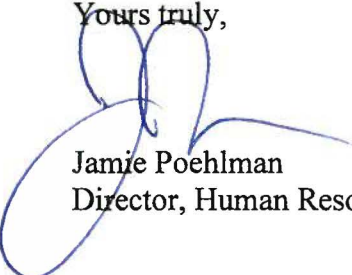

The Company may require employees taking a family emergency leave to provide medical, or other reasonable, evidence of the need for such a leave.

An employee who has been advanced pay under this letter and who has not completed the repayment of that money before ceasing employment (for whatever reason) will be required to repay the full amount owing to the Company. The employee will sign a direction and authorization to such effect upon the commencement, and as a condition, of the leave.

Protocol for Requesting and Granting Leave

1. Individuals requesting a Family Emergency Leave shall submit a written application to their Department Head. A leave of absence to attend to a family emergency may be granted at the discretion of the Company. A response will be provided within two (2) business days.
2. An employee who applies for the compassionate care benefits available under Employment Insurance (EI) and is approved for EI compassionate care benefits will be eligible for:
 - i. An advance payment equal to sixty percent (60%) of base pay during the two (2) week EI waiting period;
 - ii. The Company will subsequently advance payment equal to the difference between the payments received from EI and sixty percent (60%) of the employee's base pay for a maximum of six (6) weeks, subject to continued government legislation and approval; and,
 - iii. Upon the employee's return to work, the employee's total compensation, including base salary, premium pay, and merit pay, will be reduced by forty percent (40%) until the amounts advanced under (i) and (ii) have been fully repaid.
3. An employee, who does not qualify to receive EI benefits, may make special application to the Vice President, Human Resources for a partial salary advance on compassionate grounds. If approved, the employee will be advanced payment equal to sixty percent (60%) of the employee's base straight-time pay. Upon the employee's return to work, the employee's total compensation, including base pay, premium pay, and merit pay, will be reduced by forty percent (40%) until the partial salary advance has been fully repaid.
4. Nothing described in the above, precludes the Company from granting additional time off, with or without pay, for compassionate reasons.

Yours truly,

Jamie Poehlman
Director, Human Resources

Dear Mr. Newman,

Re: Domestic Violence or Abuse

The Company and the Union understand employees are at times dealing with personal issues that may affect their ability to function in the workplace. As such, the company and the union will develop a communication program to inform employees who may be victims of domestic violence or abuse that resources are available to assist them in dealing with these and other personal issues.

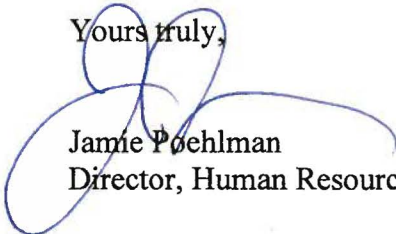

Access to the company's Employee Assistance Program (EAP) is available 24 hours per day for on-going or crisis situations and the EAP intake staff are trained to deal with such situations.

Individuals who are disabled and unable to work as a result of domestic violence or abuse will be eligible for paid time off in accordance with the Company's Short and Long Term Disability plans. Short-Term Disability claims are managed by a third-party and as such confidentiality with respect to the reason for the absence is maintained.

The Company will provide necessary accommodation to victims of domestic abuse.

The Company will recognize in its communication program the union may appoint a Domestic Violence Advocate and will allow reasonable time off for such advocate to respond to calls/communications. Time spent by the advocate will be considered Union business. The company reserves the right to deny time off.

Yours truly,

Jamie Pöehlman
