

Questions on the online application of WEPP

Question: Did you submit the proof of claim to the trustee/receiver responsible of the estate of your former employer?

Yes, as the union counsel has filed a claim on behalf of the employees.

Question: Where it asks if you have been laid off within the 56 day period?

February 2, 2024 was the deadline for employees to file their WEPP application. The Receiver has received an extension to file the WEPP packages until March 29, 2024. Because we are past the February 2, 2024 deadline, you need to answer no to the question and provide a reason for applying late (e.g. Received the package late from the receiver)

Question: What is the reference to an employment insurance ruling letter for relationship between you and employer? This question pertains to any employee that is related to the employer and as far as I am aware no employees were related to the employer. This question is skipped if you are not related to the owners/ directors of Metroland Media.

Question: All the questions about were your earnings and benefits, et cetera, similar to those of other employees who performed a similar job? Were tasks similar to those of other employees; total hours worked and days worked, similar to others ... was pay similar ... all these questions.
